Child Maltreatment, Trauma, & Trauma-Focused Treatment
PSYCHOLOGY 490

UNC MAYMESTER COURSE
1:15 – 4:30 P.M.

• The Catholic Church, Penn State University, and now the BBC have put issues of child maltreatment at the forefront of our collective consciousness.

• These cases remind us of the public health imperative to better protect children.

• This course will define maltreatment and review the impact of maltreatment experiences on youth.

• Opportunities for the lay public and mental health professionals alike to better protect & serve youth will be highlighted.
