COURSE DESCRIPTION
This accelerated course offers a survey of the major monuments of ancient Egypt from the Pre-Dynastic to the Ptolemaic Period (ca. 4400-332 BCE) as well as the method and theories used to understand ancient Egypt. Attention will be placed on how major sites and artifacts contribute to our understanding of the Egyptian world-view and its visual expression. Students will also learn basic hieroglyphs and have the opportunity to examine ancient Egyptian objects first-hand through in-class activities and visits to local museums. This course satisfies the following General Education Categories: World before 1750 (WB); Beyond the North Atlantic World (BN); and Historical Analysis (HS) in the General College (GC). Prerequisites: none.

MTWRF 1:30-4:30 p.m. For more information, contact the instructor at martinezv@unc.edu
Location: TBD