Over 113 million people of African descent live in Latin America and the Spanish-speaking Caribbean. Join us during Maymester 2019 to learn about the histories and contemporary experiences of African-descendant communities in Latin America! Course topics will include: enslavement, Afro-Latin American religions, Afro-Latin American women, racial identity, racism, and Afro-Latin social movements.